

COAL FATAL

1910 0007

BUREAU OF MINES

SUBJECT: Mine explosion at the A Quarry, Nazareth, Pennsylvania,
April 13, 1910, eleven men were killed.

A mine explosion at the A Quarry, Nazareth, Pennsylvania,
April 13, 1910 caused the death of eleven men.

[M.W. Vol. 34, P. 131]

ACCIDENTS DUE TO EXPLOSIVES (6).

Name of mine

"A Quarry

Date

Apr. 13, 1910

Location

Nazareth,

Pennsylvania

Hour

Operator

P. O.

Handling and transportation

Returned too soon

Handling caps, detonators, squibs, and fuse

Delayed blast

Thawing explosives

Shot breaking through pillar or rib

Tamping

Suffocation by powder gas

Premature blast and short fuse

Striking unexploded charge in removing debris

Blown out or windy shot

Drilling into unexploded charge

Flying pieces of rock or coal

Miscellaneous

Immediate cause

"Explosion"

M. W. Vol. 34, p. 131

Number killed

//

Injured

Occupation

Character of injury

Nationality

State Inspector's report, page

; year ending