

TWO MORE MINERS DIE.

Deaths as Result of Air Blast in Miami Mine in Arizona Are Now Five.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GLOBE (Ariz.) April 18.—G. B. Van Border and Charles Cox, miners, died today from injuries suffered yesterday in the cave-in at the Miami copper mine, at Miami, making a total of five deaths from that accident. Others of the injured were reported in precarious conditions tonight.

There were persistent rumors today that fifteen men still were under the debris, but mine officials declared all of the employees had been accounted for.

An official investigation of the accident will be begun tomorrow.

1913 Miami Mine Cave-in

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Sun, Jan 7, 2024