Four Italians Found Dead in an Abandoned Mine.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 5.—Four Italian miners were found dead in an abandoned coal mine at Catsburg. They are Steve Coskey, Andrew Getzlinski, Mike Manoski, Frank Yanky.

They attended an Italian dance at Monongahela and after the dance, it is understood, took a keg of beer and went to the mine. The wet weather caused an accumulation of fire damp and all were suffocated.
