

TWO MEN SUFFOCATED IN "BOOTLEG" MINE

Mt. Carmel, Aug. 23.—Black damp, a monoxide poison which hangs in abandoned mine holes, killed two jobless miners near here.

The men Alcysius Omlor, 24, of Mt. Carmel and Patrick Manley, 25, of Locustdale, were overcome in a so-called "bootleg" line hole near Bast Colliery.

1934 Aug black damp kills two bootleg miners

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Nov 17, 2024