

Boys Escape Abandoned Mine

SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 25 (AP).— Cold and weak, two Scranton boys found their way out of an abandoned mine yesterday after being lost 24 hours. The boys, Robert Ritchie, 13, and Paul Foytack, 12, entered the working to retrieve a half dollar which rolled in after falling from Ritchie's hand. Police and Boy Scouts had searched for them in a nearby woods.

1943 Feb two boys lost in abandoned mine PA

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 13, 2024