

Son Killed Getting Coal for His Mother

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP)— Michael Allen Carpenter, 21, of Sharon, was crushed to death yesterday when he crawled into an abandoned coal mine to hack out some coal for his widowed mother. The roof of the mine caved in on him.

The accident occurred at a mine on Cabin Creek, near Charleston.

1964 February killed while getting coal

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Sep 14, 2024