

Teen-Age Boy Drowns In Gravel Pit Pond

ZUMBROTA, Minn. (AP) — Danny Henderson, 14, rural Kenyon, Minn., drowned Monday in a gravel pit pond along U.S. Highway 52 about two miles north of Zumbrota.

The youngster, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Henderson, had been attending the Goodhue County Fair at Zumbrota. He and another youngster went to the gravel pit for a swim.

Danny went under moments after he entered the water. His companion got help from some pit workers, but they were unable to locate the victim. Sheriff's officers recovered the body from about 15 feet of water at 6 p.m., three hours after the drowning.
