

2 Killed in Mine

WINONA, W. Va. (AP) — Rescue crews recovered the bodies of two Fayette County residents Wednesday from the rubble of an abandoned strip mine which collapsed as the two were gathering coal for home use.

The two were identified as James Willis, 15, of Edmond and Rufus Jackson Sloan, 61, of Winona. Both were buried under dirt and rock when a high wall collapsed at about noon.

1973 Jan two killed at strip mine WV

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Nov 15, 2024