

Drowns in quarry

CHAMBERSBURG—A Fayetteville man drowned Saturday in the Edenville Quarry, Hamilton Twp., while on an outing with friends, according to State Police here.

Police said Neal M. McMinn, 22, of 327 W. Main St., was swimming with companions and attempted to swim across the quarry when he went under about 30 feet from the east shore.

McMinn was pronounced dead at the scene after State Police divers located his body Saturday evening, according to reports.
