

Around Here: Man Drowns in Quarry in Blair

WILLIAMSBURG — A 24-year-old Blair County man drowned after he slipped while climbing in an abandoned quarry in Woodbury Township, state police said.

John Stine of Claysburg fell 40 feet into the water of Ganister Blue Hole pond at about 7 p.m. yesterday after his head had struck a rock, police said.

1980 May John Stine drowns at quarry

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 1, 2024