

Man Drowns Near York

YORK — A 21-year-old Delaware man who was swimming in a quarry near here drowned Sunday, according to state police at York.

Richard Andrew Elden, 21, of 4 Donwood Drive, New Castle, Del., was pronounced dead at 6:15 p.m. at Fallston Medical Center, Fallston, Md.

State police at York said Elden was swimming with friends in the Funk House Quarry south of Peach Bottom Road, Peach Bottom Twp., when he failed to surface after making an 80-foot dive into the water.

A scuba diver recovered Elden's body from 30 feet of water, police said.
