

Lawrenceburg man drowns in quarry

VERSAILLES — Paul J. Wilhelm, 27, Lawrenceburg, drowned while swimming Wednesday afternoon in a quarry about a half-mile south of Rexville.

The drowning occurred about 3:15 p.m. Witnesses said it appeared that Wilhelm was treading water about 15 feet from shore when he went under and didn't reappear.

He was swimming alone, officials said.

State police divers recovered his body in 15 feet of water at 5:30 p.m.
