

Man drowns during late night swim

KEOKUK (AP) — A 23-year-old Keokuk man apparently drowned late Wednesday the Harts Quarry, 4½ miles west of Keokuk.

The Keokuk Volunteer Emergency Corps recovered the body at 2:58 a.m. Thursday. The Lee County Sheriff's Department said the rescue workers were called in after the sheriff's department received a call that one of four swimmers hadn't come to the surface at the quarry.
