

Man drowns in old quarry

WASHINGTON, Iowa (AP) — Timothy Orville Lowe, 21, of Washington drowned Friday night while swimming in an abandoned quarry pond.

Sheriff's officers were called to the pond eight miles northwest of Washington after Lowe disappeared in the water about 8:40 p.m.

Authorities said Lowe was one of a number of people in a swimming party when he dived into the water.