

Mine explorer dies in fall

ANGELS CAMP — A Calaveras County man exploring old mine shafts that honeycomb the Carson Hill area south of Angels Camp died yesterday after falling about 250 feet down an abandoned shaft. Authorities identified him as Ken Stall, 26, of Arnold. He was exploring a mine with George Robbins, also of Arnold, when he fell. Robbins said he ran to a nearby ranch where he called authorities.

1984 May mine explorer dies in fall

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Nov 23, 2024