
Man drowns in abandoned quarry

Waite Park, Minn.

A 46-year-old man drowned in an abandoned quarry a mile west of Waite Park Monday morning, the Stearns County Sheriff's Department reported.

His name and hometown were not released Tuesday pending notification of family members.

The quarry is owned by Cold Spring Granite Co. The company said the quarry, which contains water from an underground spring, is closed to the public.

1986 Jul unnamed male drowns at quarry
MN

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 1, 2024