DROWNING: A 21-year-old Whiteford, Md., man drowned Saturday in the Funkhouser Quarry on Atom Road in Peach Bottom Twp., according to the York County coroner's office.

Wesley Osborne, of the 4500 block of Flintville Road, was pronounced dead at 8:30 p.m. by Assistant Coroner Steve Cosey.

The next day state police in Logansville conducted a raid at the quarry. They arrested 66 people for criminal trespass and one person for driving under the influence, police said.
