A Council Bluffs teen-ager drowned Sunday while fishing in an abandoned rock quarry near Grant, Iowa.

The Montgomery County Sheriff's Office said Cody J. Bergantzel, 18, and an unidentified friend were fishing in an inflatable raft around 7 p.m. Sunday. The raft popped, and both boys, who weren't wearing life jackets, plunged into the water.

The friend was able to swim to shore. When he reached the shore, he could no longer see Bergantzel and went to call for help.

Bergantzel's body was recovered around 10 p.m., the Sheriff's Office said.
