

ARIZONA

Hiker's body found

WICKENBURG — The body of a hiker was found Monday in an abandoned mine shaft in the mountains southwest of Wickenburg.

Authorities had been searching for the victim, described as a young man, since Sunday evening.

Maricopa County sheriff's officials said the victim and four others had been four-wheeling in the rugged area and then apparently got off their ATV's to do some hiking.

2002 June body of hiker found in mine shaft AZ

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Sep 19, 2024