

Quarry death ruled accident

BANGOR (AP) — The death of a man who plunged off a cliff into a quarry has been ruled accidental. The Northampton County coroner said Joseph Belverio, 49, of Upper Darby Township died from drowning in the quarry on private land in Bangor. Police were called to the scene shortly before 8:30 p.m. Friday and found him floating face-down in the water. Coroner Zachary Lysek said he “jumped off one of the higher cliffs” more than 100 feet high on Friday night.

2019 Jun quarry cliff diver drowns

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Sep 28, 2024