

Boy Smothers In Cave-In At Md. Gravel Pit

FORESTVILLE, Md. (AP) — A 4-year-old boy fell into a gravel pit and was smothered in a cave-in Friday.

Anthony Colletti, son of Washington Police Sgt. Gasparo J. Colletti, was scooped out of the Prince Georges County pit in a sand and gravel company loading bucket. He was pronounced dead at Prince Georges General Hospital.

Playmates told Mrs. Colletti that Anthony fell from a steep embankment and was covered with earth during a cave-in. His mother ran to the pit where an employe of the sand and gravel firm said the body was discovered in the earth-filled bucket of a mechanical loader.

Anthony Colletti age 4

Clipped By:
dianekiser
May 28, 2022