

BOY DROWNED IN QUARRY.

Walter Quist of West Quincy Broke
Through the Ice.

Quincy, Mass., Dec. 23.—The first thin ice fatality of the winter here occurred yesterday. Twelve-year-old Walter Quist, son of Isaac Quist of Hillside street, broke through the ice while skating on an abandoned quarry and was drowned. The body was recovered.

1911 Dec Walter Quist drowns at quarry
MA

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Feb 17, 2025