

BOY DROWNS IN OLD QUARRY

Child, 9 Years Old, Slipped While Crawfishing; Body Recovered.

Frank Rozaity Jr., 9 years old, of 7017 South Broadway, was drowned in 20 feet of water in an abandoned quarry on Koeln street, near Polk street, at 8 o'clock last night, when he slipped into the water while crawfishing with other boys. The body was recovered with grappling hooks.

The quarry was protected three three years ago by the city building a four and one-half foot fence about six feet from the edge of the bank. The boys, it was said, climbed this fence to get to the edge of the water to fish. Other boys who were with Rozaity became frightened when he fell into the water and ran to their homes to tell their parents.
