

LAD DROWNS IN POOL AT NAPA JUNCTION

NAPA (Napa Co.), September 21.—Andrew Simontocki, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Simontocki of Napa Junction, was drowned while swimming at the Portland Cement works.

Young Simontocki and another youth, Victor Zanardi, also of Napa Junction, went swimming in a pool of water which formed in an abandoned quarry.

Zanardi had left the water and was dressing when he heard Simontocki call for help. He endeavored to save his companion, but was pulled down and found it necessary to confine his efforts to saving his own life.
