

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/687550736/>

A school girl 10 years old, playing on the edge of an abandoned quarry in St. Louis, slips into 30 feet of water and drowns.

Portuguese aviators complete their flight to St. Paul Island.

Another abandoned quarry tragedy occurred in St. Louis when a little boy 6 years old fell into the water, and his 19-year-old brother, with one arm in a sling, goes to his rescue but cannot keep up long enough for help to arrive.

1922 Apr two children drown at quarries
MO

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 16, 2024