

DOCTOR DROWNS IN QUARRY PIT

Elgin, Ill., June 25.—Dr. Wilmer Thorwaldson, a member of the staff of physicians of the Elgin State hospital for the insane, was drowned late yesterday afternoon in a stone quarry at South Elgin.

The doctor, late of the Wesley Memorial hospital of Chicago suffered a fit of cramps when half way across the 100-foot quarry channel and went down before assistance could reach him. His bride of a year witnessed the accident.

1923 Jun Wilmer Thorwaldson drowns at quarry IL

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 16, 2024