

BADLY INJURED BY 40 FOOT FALL INTO QUARRY

Barre, Vt., Oct. 21.—William Hendry, 60, was so seeriously injured today that he may die as the result of a fall in the Wells and Lamson quarry at Websterville. He suffered a fractured skull and a possible broken neck in a headlong plunge of 40 feet into the pit.

1924 Oct William Hendry injured at quarry
VT

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 16, 2024