Bodies Missing Children Found in Abandoned Quarry.

Chester, Pa., July 11. (P)—Search for the two missing children of Sun Village, Eugene Griffin, 18 months, and Virginia Bonneville, three ended tonight with the finding of their bodies in an abandoned quarry. They are believed to have wandered to the quarry and fallen over the edge into the water. The children disappeared last Thursday.

One theory was that they had been kidnapped and police throughout the east were notified to watch for them.
