

Rockland Girl Falls In Quarry And Drowns

ROCKLAND, July, 23. (Special)—
While fishing in an abandoned lime quarry near her home, Madeline C. Jenkins, five years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland K. Jenkins of 121 Old County Road, was drowned Tuesday afternoon. With her brother, John, the little girl had gone to the quarry and fell into the water from the quarry road, which makes a platform above the pool. The brother ran to his home and told his mother, and the police were notified. Dragging the 200 feet of water, the body was recovered in 10 minutes by Officer Fred Achorn, assisted by Charles McIntosh.

1930 Jul Madeline Jenkins drowns at quarry ME

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 19, 2024