

LINCOLN MAN DROWNS IN ROCK QUARRY POOL

JESSE M'GUFFEY, 20, WAS SWIMMING WITH COMPANIONS NEAR STANFORD

Special to The Leader.

STANFORD, Ky., July 23.—Jesse McGuffey, 20, son of Mrs. James McGuffey, who lives near Hall's Gap, eight miles from here, was drowned this morning while swimming with several companions in a rock quarry pool on the farm of Phil Nunnely, four miles from Stanford.

The pool in which the tragedy occurred had been formed by the heavy rains following recent excavations of rock and was not well known to the swimmers. The youth's body has not been recovered.

McGuffey was the sole support of his mother and a number of brothers and sisters. Funeral arrangements have not been made, pending the recovery of his body.
