spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller. Millard Ebaugh, York, was a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ebaugh, on Sunday.	ler, county coroner, was due to accidental drowning.	and summoned assistance. Mr. Bittinger went to the scene and waded in the water in an attempt to find the body but was unsuccessful. Mr. Bittinger cannot swim and had to abandon the search when the water covered him to his neck. C. R. Orndorff and Hugh McIlwain, officials at the quarry, also assisted in the search. Finally William Kepner was called and after a brief search found the body.
A union prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday evening in the local Methodist Protestant church. As the pastor, the Rev. Charles B. Robey, will be attending the union evangelistic tent meeting at Norrisville, the Rev. John W. McMorris, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal church, will be in charge of the meeting.	The body was recovered yesterday afternoon at 2:10 o'clock, just 20 minutes after it disappeared. William Kepner, Allegheny avenue, Hanover, an employe at the mines and an expert swimmer, searched for the body found it, and removed it from the quarry after a search made by others was unsuccessful.	Thirty-two years ago Irvin Harman drowned in the same quarry hole, and since then the cavity has been known as Harman's quarry. It had been worked some years ago and recently had been cleaned as operations of the Bethlehem Mines corporation neared it.
Mary Stewart, Ruth Donsife, Phyllis Trout, Grace Trout, Ruth Preston have returned from a vacation at Charleston Beach, as members of a camping party.	A slight pulse was noticed when the body was recovered and Dr. C. G. Gray and Dr. Henry Goeken, Hanover, was rushed to the scene. The physicians used the pulmotor on the body until after 3 o'clock but life had become extinct, although slight pulsations on occasions renewed hope of resuscitation.	The victim is survived by his parents; two sisters, Relda and Gloria, and one brother, Allen, all at home. Funeral Director William A. Feiser, Hanover, has taken charge of the body and is preparing it for burial. The funeral will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Green Springs church. Burial will be in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Abbottstown.
Miss Yvonne Norris is confined to the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Shaw, by illness.	Young Miller had been in the water with Samuel Richstein, the latter a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Richstein, neighbors of the Miller family. Miller was not an experienced swimmer. He waded into the quarry, and it is believed, stepped into a pocket in the rocky bottom, and then went under.	Japan may increase taxes.
