ALEXANDRIA, Ind., May 23.—(AP) —Doris Huston, 10 years old, daughter of Mrs. Hazel Huston of Alexandria, was drowned in a stone quarry pool near here yesterday. The child with another girl was sitting on the ledge of the pool when she slipped into deep water. The other girl, Annabelle Johnson, 12 years old, told authorities she tried twice to pull the Huston girl out of the water and after she had failed the second time Doris cried, "Good bye, I'm going now." The body was recovered several hours later.
