

BOYS DROWN IN GRAVEL PIT NEAR WEAVER, IND.

MARION, Ind., June 28 (AP) — Two boys, Charles Jervis, 14, and Floyd Kirk, 16, drowned today in deep water of a gravel pit near the town of Weaver. Companions said the two boys sank clasped together, one apparently trying to save the other. They expressed the belief cramps caused by cold water caused one of the boys to sink and the other went to his rescue. The two boys lived near Fairmount.

1935 Jun two boys drown at quarry IN

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 23, 2024