

Two Youths Drown in Abandoned Quarry

FALL RIVER, Mass., May 17. (AP)—
A water hole in an abandoned quarry at Beattie's Ledge, scene of numerous drownings in recent years, has claimed two more victims. George Jasper, 13, and Henri Talbot, 12, both of Fall River, drowned there yesterday as their crude home-made raft submerged in deep water.

1935 May two boys drown at quarry MA

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 23, 2024