

Eight-Year-Old Boy Drowns, Quarry

Sioux Falls, June 27—(AP)—Lawrence Ridenour, 8-year-old East Sioux Falls boy, drowned today in an abandoned stone quarry near here.

Accompanied by two playmates about the same age, Lawrence had gone to the quarry to fish. He slipped and fell into the water while sitting on a rock ledge 12 feet above the water.

Sioux Falls firemen located the body after a 20-minute search in 16 feet of water. At its deepest point, the water in the quarry was reported to be 70 feet deep.

1940 Jun Lawrence Ridenour drowns at quarry SD

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 28, 2024