

Boy, Eight, Drowns In Old Quarry East Of Wakeman Village

WAKEMAN (Special) — The body of Warren L. Emerich, eight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adams Emerich of Gifford-rd, just east of here, was recovered from an abandoned stone quarry, where Huron-co Coroner J. D. Bradish said the boy had fallen and drowned yesterday afternoon.

The father, who located the body eight hours after the lad went fishing, said his son failed to return home for the evening and a search was instituted.

He is survived by his parents, one brother and one sister. Funeral arrangements are in charge of the L. D. Gerber Funeral Home.
