

Two small sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greene, who live near Muncie, Ind., fell into an abandoned stone quarry Sunday night and drowned. They were Phillip Arthur Greene, 6, and Kenneth Herbert Greene, 4. Mrs. Edith Musick, a neighbor, saw them playing near the quarry and later heard them cry for help. The bodies were recovered an hour after the accident.

1943 Jun two children drown at quarry IN

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Dec 29, 2024