

Body of Youth Found in Quarry

McALESTER, July 8—(AP)—The body of Ed Cathey, 25, McAlester, was found in about ten feet of water in an abandoned rock quarry northeast of here yesterday.

Police Chief Roy Anders and assistant county attorney Willard Gotcher said they believed Cathey fell into the quarry. They said he was unable to swim.

The body was found by Cathey's brother-in-law, John Hall, and J. W. Williams.
