

Charlestown Girl Drowns in Quarry

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., June 13. —(U.P.)— State Police blamed stomach cramps today for the death of Wanda Lee Breeding, 14-year-old Charlestown girl who drowned while swimming in a stone quarry one mile north of her home.

The victim was swimming with several of her girl friends yesterday. They pulled her out and applied artificial respiration without success, state police said.

1950 Jun Wanda Breeding drowns at quarry IN

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Jan 1, 2025