

BOY, 13, DROWNS IN QUARRY AS 3 FRIENDS WATCH

David Ellis, 13, of 2101 S. 18th st., Broadview, was drowned yesterday in the Tarode quarry on Harger rd. about three miles south of Elmhurst, while swimming with three companions.

Lafe Short, 22, of 448 N. Austin blvd., one of the swimming group, dove into the quarry several times in a vain effort to recover the body. DuPage county deputies, summoned to the quarry, which has been abandoned for several years, worked 90 minutes to recover the body in 30 feet of water.
