

Auburn Youngsters Drown in Quarry

AUBURN (AP)—Two small boys were drowned and a third was rescued yesterday after they fell through the thin ice of an abandoned and flooded quarry northwest of the city.

The bodies of William Fabrizio and Thomas Scott, both 6 and both of Auburn, were pulled from the water by police. Seven-year-old John Stine of Auburn was rescued. He was taken to a hospital.

1954 Jan two 6 yr olds drown at quarry NY

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Jan 4, 2025