

Two Men Drown In Abandoned Quarry

WAUKESHA, Wis. (UP) — Two railroad workers drowned while swimming in an abandoned stone quarry near Okauchee Wednesday when one of the men suffered a cramp and the other tried to rescue him.

Victims were Joe L. Cameron, 23, Denver, Colo., who got the cramp, and Heriberto Ortiz, 23, Milwaukee, who went down in the rescue attempt. Both men worked for the Milwaukee Railroad near Watertown.

1955 Aug two men drown at quarry WI

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Jan 4, 2025