

Vinita Man Drowns At Swimming Party

VINITA, Okla., July 30 —(UP)— A midnight swimming party in an abandoned rock quarry ended in death for a Vinita man early Saturday.

The drowning victim was identified as 23-year-old Bill Brown. He and two companions, Carl Armstrong, 26, and his wife Roberta, 25, were swimming in the quarry six miles east of Vinita when Brown drowned about 12:30 a. m.

Firemen from Miami, Okla., failed to find the body with grappling hooks and planned to send a diver down to recover the body.
