

Lone Oak Youth Drowns In Quarry

Courier-Journal West Kentucky Bureau

Smithland, Ky., July 26.—A 17-year-old Lone Oak youth, John D. Smith, drowned Tuesday in an abandoned water-filled quarry near here.

Smith had gone to the quarry with a group of teen-agers, but apparently no one saw him enter the water, County authorities reported.

Bobby Drake, an 18-year-old skin diver swimming in the quarry, recovered the body in 40 feet of water.
