

17-Year-Old Drowns in Columbus Quarry

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—David Price, 17, drowned yesterday in a deep, water-filled stone quarry less than a mile east of Grandview Avenue North of McKinley Avenue.

Police said that the victim and two companions entered the quarry about 1 p.m. and that minutes later Price disappeared beneath the surface. His companions made efforts to reach him, but could not recover the body.

Firemen were called to begin dragging operations.
