Boy, 8, Drowns In Abandoned Quarry

JEANNETTE, Pa (AP) — An 8-year-old boy slipped into a deep spot and drowned Sunday while wading with his brother and two other children in a pond at an abandoned stone quarry near here

The victim was John F Shipley of Jeannette.

The youngster's brother, 9-year-old Stephen, tried to rescue John but foundered and was pulled to safety by Randy DeBlasio, 9, also of Jeannette.

The children's shouts were heard by Donald G. Rager, 28, of Westmoreland City, who was visiting his parents at their nearby home.

Rager ran to the pond and dived in. After a 10-minute search, he recovered the child's body.
