

State Girl Drowns in Swimming Mishap

VERONA —(AP)— Christine Koenings, 14, of Madison drowned Thursday while swimming at the Verona village pool with a group of girls.

Miss Koenings, daughter of Roman Koenings, superintendent of forests and parks for the Wisconsin Conservation Department, was believed to have suffered a cramp. She was an excellent swimmer.

The body was recovered about 25 yards from shore in the pool converted from an abandoned quarry. Life guards and a doctor tried for more than an hour to revive the girl.
