

Youth Drowns In Rowan

GRANITE QUARRY — A 20-year-old Negro youth drowned while swimming in an abandoned quarry near here Sunday evening. He was identified as John Krider of South Shaver street, Salisbury.

Rowan County Coroner Rufus Honeycutt said the youth apparently went under water about 5:30 p.m. The sheriff's department received the call at 5:55 and the body was recovered by the Rowan County Rescue Squad at 6:40 in 16 feet of water.

Honeycutt said Krider was accompanied by Jimmy Poag of Concord street, Salisbury.
