

Two Young Cousins Drown In Quarry

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va.
(UPI) — Two young cousins drowned Wednesday night when they fell into an abandoned quarry pool while trying to pull in a fishing line which had become tangled.

The victims were Wallace E. Gray, 14, and Terry Lee Giff, 10, of nearby Bakerton.

Authorities said one boy was holding to a tree limb with one hand and holding his companion with the other when the tree limb broke and both fell into the water. Neither boy could swim.
