

'Good' Swimmer Drowns in Quarry Near Steelton

STEELTON, Pa. (UPI)—A Dauphin County youth described as a "fairly good" swimmer, drowned Sunday in a water-filled limestone quarry near here.

The victim was identified as Anthony Benkovic, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benkovic Jr., of Bressler, who had gone to the quarry for an afternoon of swimming with five companions.

Three of the youths swam the 200 foot width of the quarry together and Benovic tried to do it alone. Halfway across he shouted for help and his friends made an unsuccessful attempt to rescue him with a makeshift life preserver.

The victim's body was recovered in 10 feet of water.
